I. Overview: Principle 4, Privacy and Data Security

Source: PDF pages 1–2

4. Privacy and Data Security Student and staff data must be protected. No personally identifiable information … including Individual Education Plans (IEP), 504 Plans, … contents, student performance data, or health information — should be entered into any AI tool. Exceptions may be granted for specific tools that the District AI Committee and Technology Department have expressly approved for Personally Identifiable Information use, provided a signed Student Data Privacy Agreement is in place before any such data is entered.

Footnote 1: definition of personally identifiable information

- Require that all new AI tools are brought to the District AI Committee for vetting prior to classroom use.

II. Community Engagement (excerpt)

Families should be aware that students may have access to AI tools at home that are not district approved. The district cannot control AI use on personal devices or home networks; however, academic integrity expectations apply to all student work regardless of where it is completed. This includes only using district approved tools for schoolwork regardless of where or how it is completed.
